To Whom it May Concern,

My name is Dan White and I am writing this letter of recommendation for Chukky Okobi as a keynote speaker, NLP trainer, and Mindset Coach. I have known Mr. Okobi and have been in business with him since 2003.

I am real estate developer and business entrepreneur and my development company, City Ventures, is in Omaha, NE.

My company, City Ventures currently holds real estate and businesses worth in excess of $200 million. Inc. Magazine rated City Ventures in the top 20% of the fastest growing companies in America in 2018 (#915/5000).

I started City Ventures in 2014 and Chukky has played in integral part in training and educating employees in several companies we've owned together, teaching them the values and mindset that it takes to perform at a high level. Many of the opportunities that I have had as an entrepreneur and business owner are as a result of the value his wisdom and communication skills have brought to my career and business endeavors.

Having first met Chukky Okobi as a NFL football player, I have been witness to his growth as a leader and business professional over the past 15 years. I have witnessed him in countless business negotiations and employee trainings in the past 2 decades, I am intimately familiar with his ability to communicate, teach, inspire and motive a team and push others to strive to reach their full potential.

I cannot recommend Chukky highly enough. He is a gifted Keynote Speaker and trainer. I've seen him speak to groups from Big Ten college football teams, toasts at weddings, and in multi million dollar business negotiations. He is potentially the best communicator I've ever known and someone I consider family. You would be very fortunate to have him speak to your company.

I'm more than happy to share any additional perspective you may want about Mr. Okobi and his value as a speaker. Feel free to call me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Dan White, president
City Ventures
